Letter to the Congregation from Assoc Pastor Wong Choon Yew

Dear Brethren,

It is with deep regret that I announce my resignation from my roles as Associate Pastor and Pastor-in-Charge of the Chinese Congregation of Moriah Church.

My last day in office shall be 31 August.

Over the past few months, I have experienced health challenges that have made it increasingly difficult for me to continue serving effectively. Besides persistent lethargy, my memory has deteriorated noticeably, and I have found it increasingly difficult to think clearly, concentrate, and carry out my pastoral responsibilities effectively. These changes have become increasingly evident over recent months and point to a rapid deterioration associated with aging, even though I am only 57 years old.

After much prayer and careful consideration, I have come to the difficult conclusion that I am no longer able to fulfil my pastoral calling with the level of faithfulness, clarity, and effectiveness that the ministry requires and that the congregation deserves. It is therefore with a heavy heart that I have decided to step down from these responsibilities.

I am deeply thankful for the privilege of serving alongside you and for the support, fellowship, and partnership we have shared in ministry. I am also grateful that Pr Zac has shown himself capable of shepherding the Chinese congregation, and I trust that the ministry will progress under God's guidance.

May the Lord continue to bless, guide, and strengthen Moriah Church in the days ahead.

Yours in Christ,
Choon Yew
