SERMON - 12 JUL 2026

Brought In to Bring Others In

Acts 8:26-40

Rev Daniel Gan

BI: Cut off by the law. Brought in by the Lamb. Sent home rejoicing.

Sermon Outline:

1. Introduction
2. The man who had everything (v.26-28)
3. The man who's not invited (v.27; Deut 23:1; Isa 56:3)
4. The scroll on his lap (v.29-35; Isa 53:7-8; Isa 56:3-5)
5. What prevents me? (v.36-39)
6. Brought in to bring others in (v.39-40)
7. Conclusion

Questions:

1. The sermon named our walls... family, past, failures, our failing body, faith. What is your wall? What does that "whisper" sound like?

2. Where are you still living like a PR in your Father's house? Performing, standing at the edge of a place that is yours? What would it look like for you to "went on his way rejoicing"?

3. Write one name - your "dry tree". Share the name with your HCG. Pray for them together, and for you: what is your one step before the end of the year?
- Pray, invite, share your testimony, bring them to SBC/HCG/service?

MISSION PROJECT FUND UPDATE: Stewardship of Excess Funds

We praise God for the congregation's overwhelming response to the Thailand Project Fund, which closed on 5 July 2026 with a total collection of $8,700, exceeding our original $5,200 target.

The initial $5,200 has since been fully disbursed for its intended purposes:

- * $2,400 for the Pak Oh Village roof repairs
- * $2,800 for the Mae Sai fig farm greenhouse

Following our commitment to transparent stewardship, the Mission Committee has prayerfully allocated the $3,500 surplus to two vital ministry areas:

1. $1,750 will be used to purchase provisions and care gifts for the Karen villages and seminary students in Chiang Rai, to be hand-delivered by our team during the upcoming Moriah Mission Trip in November 2026.
2. The remaining $1,750 will go immediately toward the rebuilding of Sekan Village in Myanmar, which has been severely devastated by civil war.

Thank you for your incredible, overflowing generosity that continues to impact lives across borders. To God be the glory!
