Faithful When We're Faithless

Mark 14:32-42

Rev Daniel Gan

Main Idea:

Christ's perfect faithfulness in our place transforms us into people who can keep our word, not through our own effort but through the power of His grace.

1. In what area of your life do you find yourself most frequently making promises you struggle to keep? How has this affected your integrity and relationship with others?

2. Jesus was faithful in facing an ultimate test while the disciples failed a smaller one. How does understanding that Jesus remain faithful while we are faithless change your approach to your own failures?

3. Transformation comes not from trying harder but from being "overwhelmed by the One who kept His word to us when it cost Him everything". What steps can you take this Lenten season to deepen your awareness of Christ's faithfulness to you?
