Sickness In The Bible: A Theological Perspective

John 9:1-3

Rev Tan Eng Boo

I) Sickness is the general consequence of sin

II) Sickness can be a direct consequence of personal sin

III) Sickness can be unrelated to personal sin. It could be a test from God.

IV) Personal sickness can be a consequence of another's sin

V) Sickness can manifest the glory of God

Reflection questions:

1. In what ways does God use affliction to refine and strengthen your faith?

2. How can you cultivate a spirit of thankfulness even in the midst of suffering? Can you share a personal experience?

3. How would you offer encouragement to a believer who is experiencing illness?
