Mission Project Fund Update: Stewardship of Excess Funds
We praise God for the congregation's overwhelming response to the Thailand Project Fund, which closed on 5 July 2026 with a total collection of $8,700, exceeding our original $5,200 target.
The initial $5,200 has since been fully disbursed for its intended purposes:
* $2,400 for the Pak Oh Village roof repairs
* $2,800 for the Mae Sai fig farm greenhouse

Following our commitment to transparent stewardship, the Mission Committee has prayerfully allocated the $3,500 surplus to two vital ministry areas:
1. $1,750 will be used to purchase provisions and care gifts for the Karen villages and seminary students in Chiang Rai, to be hand-delivered by our team during the upcoming Moriah Mission Trip in November 2026.
2. The remaining $1,750 will go immediately toward the rebuilding of Sekan Village in Myanmar, which has been severely devastated by civil war.

Thank you for your incredible, overflowing generosity that continues to impact lives across borders. To God be the glory!
